Organization/ Structure

The Tennessee Federation for the Aging, Inc. (TFA) was organized in 1968 and incorporated in 1969 to secure funding for senior citizens' programs and services and to serve as an advocacy group for older adults. Over the years, TFA has coordinated with various local, district and statewide organizations to provide service provider training, educational workshops, and advocacy to align efforts to improve the overall quality of life for older Tennesseans.

TFA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable organization. Any donations or contributions made to support TFA events or activities are greatly appreciated.

TFA membership consists of representatives from statewide agencies, government agencies, area agencies on aging and disability, senior centers, home health agencies, nutrition providers, adult day care providers, long-term care facilities, older adults, family caregivers, legal community and students. Your Voice on Aging

TFA's Purpose

To enhance the general welfare of older Tennesseans and to promote civic, educational and social measures relating to the special interests of older Tennesseans.

TFA Goals

- Initiate and encourage goals that enhance the overall well-being of older Tennesseans.
- Identify and coordinate with other constituent groups with similar objectives.
- Support programs designed to assist older adults in remaining independent.
- Review proposed and recent legislation affecting older adults.
- Encourage development of continuing education and training for service providers
- Strengthen the aging network through aging conferences and regional workshops.
- Serve as a statewide voice and advocate for public policies, social attitudes, and practices that promote vital aging.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

Activities and Services

NETWORKING

One of the most exciting benefits of TFA membership is the opportunity to network with service providers, educators, administrators, advocates, policymakers, corporations, older adults, legal community and other members with similar interests at TFA conferences, meetings, events, and through TFA media outlets.

TRAINING CONFERENCE:

TFA members receive a special reduced registration fee for the annual training conferences and any other TFA events. Conference events are geared toward helping service providers and consumers improve their knowledge and skills.

MEDIA:

TFA members have exclusive opportunities to be involved in various TFA media outlets. TFA shares information, announcements, photos, etc. to highlight the various TFA events, and TFA members and their activities, through its Facebook page, website, and newsletter. All TFA-member organizations will be listed on TFA's website and have the opportunity to participate in special promotional media activities.

ADVOCACY:

For more than four decades, TFA has organized the Aging Day on the Hill at Legislative Plaza in Nashville to bring older adults, service providers, and other advocates together from across the state to create awareness and share a unified message about the needs of older Tennesseans. Each year on behalf of the statewide aging network and older Tennesseans, TFA requests the Governor of Tennessee to declare the month of May as Older Tennesseans Month to encourage awareness and education in local communities that recognize contributions and addresses the needs of older adults.
